AN INVITATION

A cordial invitation is extended the men of the community who are not attending any Sunday School to visit Class 38 at the Foster Street Methodist church tomorrow morning. Any visiting gentlemen in the city will be cordially welcomed.

Lesson Text.

1. Now it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side. But he told not his father.

2. And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in Migron; and the people that were with him were about six hundred men.

3. And Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the Lord's priest in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4. And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side; and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5. The forefront of the one was situated northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeah.

6. And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the Lord will work for us: for there is no restraint to the Lord to save by many or by few.

7. And his armour bearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8. Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will passover unto these men, and we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them.

10. But if they say thus, Come up unto us, then we will go up; for the Lord hath delivered them into our hand; and this shall be a sign unto us.

11. And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves.

12. And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armour bearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armour bearer, Come up after me; for the Lord hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13. And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet and his armour bearer after him and they fell before Jonathan, and his armour bearer slew after him.

Cordele, Ga., March 18.—The Farmers' State Bank, of Cordele, capitalized at $25,000, went into the hands of a receiver this morning for the purpose of liquidation. Assets are about $76,000 and liabilities less than $40,000. B. H. Palmer was appointed receiver.

It is authentically reported that all of the depositors will be paid off in full, and that the stockholders will lose between 10 and 15 per cent.

Failure to collect numerous notes is said to have caused the decision of the directors to liquidate. J. A. Wilson, of Cordele, is president of the institution.

When Anybody Finds a Cure He Is Generally Willing To Tell His Neighbor

¶ The willingness of one neighbor to tell another neighbor in a private way of the benefit received from Peruna, explains the popularity of Peruna more than all the advertising that has been done.

¶ The fear of the publicity undoubtedly prevents the majority of such people from writing a testimonial to be used in the newspaper. But in spite of that we are receiving fine testimonials continually.

ANEMIA—Mrs. F. A. DeWitt, Marengo, Ohio, says: "I believe Peruna to be the best tonic. I recommend it for any run-down condition of the system."

SPRING COLDS—Mrs. Rhoda Stuffebeam, Bunch, Iowa: "A spring cold I took settled on my lungs. Coughed. Could not sleep. We feared consumption. Thanks to Peruna, I am a well woman today."

CATARRH—Mrs. Sadie Allen, Joseph, Oregon: "My little boy is entirely cured of catarrh of the ears by Peruna. Am thankful for your good advice."

SPRING TONIC—Mrs. Wm. McRoberts, Brown Valley, Minn.: "Taken in spring Peruna tones up the system, acts as a tonic. I consider Peruna a whole family medicine chest."

¶ How did they hear of Peruna?

¶ Simply because one neighbor is always willing to tell another one he has found a cure. Neighborly conversation of grateful patients has done more for Peruna than advertising. Much more.

The "Ills of Life," sent free.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, an has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active. 12

Cordele, Ga., March 18.—The Farmers' State Bank, of Cordele, capitalized at $25,000, went into the hands of a receiver this morning for the purpose of liquidation. Assets are about $76,000 and liabilities less than $40,000. B. H. Palmer was appointed receiver.

It is authentically reported that all of the depositors will be paid off in full, and that the stockholders will lose between 10 and 15 per cent.

Failure to collect numerous notes is said to have caused the decision of the directors to liquidate. J. A. Wilson, of Cordele, is president of the institution.

IT WEREN'T FOR HER.

If it weren't for Her, still sweet and fair,
The sunset's gold on her silver hair,
Autumn o' the years in the eyes of her;
If it weren't for Her—to my soul I say—
I'd be a traveler here had lost the way
Out o' the certain Gates of Day,
Far from Home.

If it weren't for Her—With her smile so bright
Like a lone heather in storm and night,
Like myself in Love's first flight,
Like—if my love'll hold her—
Like—if the years be dim sea";
And all the while she was leadin' me
To the light that shines o'er the stormy foam
From the shores of Home.

If it weren't for Her, the day we passed
From a grave to a world grown cold at last,
With God's dark shadows gathering fast,
Life would have cried, in Line's despair
To God to hide a man's heart there!
But Her voice in God's Silence speaks sure and sweet
O'er the dust and violets at Life's feet,
And Light streamed down from Heaven's big dome—
The Light of Home.

And the day is near when we shall stand
At the sundown gateway, hand in hand
With the light of Her soul's love shining there,
Bright as in valleys of Life's despair;
And if it be given in that high day
A word to the Angel of Light to say
'Twill be but an echo from earth's fair side:
"If it weren't for her!" * * * As the gates swing wide.

Dothan Study Club—

Mrs. Jonah Lisenby entertained the members of the Dothan Study Club Friday afternoon in a most delightful way.

The apartments were made beautiful by vases of narcissi and pots of hyacinths.

Two visitors were the guests of the club, Mrs. McGee, the guest of Mrs. Golson, and Mrs. Will Hollan the guest of Mrs. Ellison.

No refreshments were served, in accordance with the custom of the various clubs of the city.

The interesting program was as follows:

Roll Call: "Popular Superstitions of the Time."

Mrs. Drewry Foy.

Reading, "Field of the Cloth of Gold," Miss Florrie Malone.

Questions: On English Cathedrals.

Discussion, led by Mrs. Jonah Lisenby

Mrs. Val McGee and children have returned to their home in Hartford, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. C. O. Golson.

Miss Weeda Chapman of Troy, will arrive Monday to visit Mrs. C. O. Golson.

THE GREATEST THROWER IN THE BIG LEAGUES

In the April American Magazine Ring W. Lardner, author of "The Letters of a Busher," picks an All-American baseball team. He calls his article "Some Team" and for one of his catching staff he chooses Archer of the Chicago Cubs, whose playing he briefly describes as follows:

"I don't care what they say, they's nobody in the big leagues that can throw with Archer. He can hold the ball till a guy be gins slidin' to second base, and then get him standing up. And he can be sittin' on one car when he throws the ball, and it'll go He's as good as any of 'em at outguessin' guys, he can receive with the best of 'em, and he'll catch all the foul flys that stays in the park. So how can you beat him? And he ain't no rotten hitter, neither."

CORN CLUB PRIZES OFFERED FOR 1915

Scholarships And Cash Given By H. G. Hastings In Alabama And Other States.

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special.)—Corn club prizes for Southern boys in Alabama and nine other corn growing states of this section have been renewed for 1915 by H. G. Hastings, general chairman of the Georgia Corn Show Committee and chairman of the Agricultural Committee of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

The prizes amount in all to $1,200, in cash and scholarships, and will be awarded under the direction of the government corn club agents in each state.

In Alabama Mr. Hastings has offered $100 and arrangements have already been made to award it in scholarship form.

In Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, North Carolina and South Carolina, Mr. Hastings offers $100 in each state, to be awarded either in cash or scholarships, according to local arrangement. In Georgia, his home state, he offers a $250 scholarship in the State College of Agriculture and two additional cash prizes of $30 and $20, respectively.

The great educational value and constructive force of the corn club contests, in addition to the marvels they are accomplishing in increased corn productions, are emphasized in an interview given out by Mr. Hastings in connection with his announcement of prizes. Mr. Hastings said:

"The interest now being taken in corn production, by the federal government, by state officials, by leading organizations and individuals, is, in my opinion, the greatest constructive force now operative in agricultural affairs in America. For too long the tendency of education in the rural schools was to draw boys away from the farm, but the corn clubs are now combining with true agricultural education to influence the boys to form new ideas and new ideals of farm life. The corn club work is growing in value and importance with each successive year."

The End of Quest.

Diogenes was sitting on a fire hydrant when a kindly-faced man stopped and addressed him, according to the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"What's wrong with you, old friend?" he asked.

"I've been sorely misused," replied the cynic.

"In what way"

"As I turned yonder corner carrying my lantern a youth approached me. 'Wherefore the glim?' he asked. I replied that I was Diogenes looking for an honest man. The youth laughed. 'You'er wasting time in this town, uncle," he said. 'Your glim is no use here.' And what do you think? He took my lantern away from me, and my hat and my street car pennies, and ran around the corner The only thing he left of any value was my collar button. Do you wonder that I appear morose?"

"Not at all," replied the kindly faced citizen. "You are quite excusable. I am a little sorry, however, that in your search for an honest man you couldn't have waited until you met me. But, perhaps it's just as well."

So saying, he stooped down suddenly and, snatching away the philosopher's collar button, ran up the nearest alley and disappeared.

Yankee Ingenuity Won.

To illustrate Yankee persistency, relates the Pathfinder, J. Pierpont Morgan used to tell the following story:

"A New England Yankee who was a prisoner on a pirate ship" said Mr. Morgan, "in the good old days when pirates roamed the seas, became, because of his Yankee attributes, objectionable to his captors.

"It was finally decided to maroon him on a desert island, with but little food and a coffin to remind him of his inevitable fate. The island was found, and the New Englander and coffin were left alone on the beach while the pirate ship sailed away.

"For several days she sailed and then becalmed. For three days she lay there with not a breath of air. On the evening of the third day a black speck was noticed on the horizon. It steadily grew larger and soon was close enough for the men on the ship to make out what it was."

The man of millions paused for a while and then said, smilingly:

"It was the Yankee in his coffin with half of the lid in either hand, rowing for home."
